

Code of Ethical Conduct

The Code of Ethical Conduct outlines the appropriate behavior for Field Staff. This Code is the basis of our Corporate Compliance Program and will assist Field Staff in carrying out their daily activities within appropriate moral ethical, and legal standards. The Code is not intended to cover every situation, but rather help Field Staff make the right decisions or ask the right questions. Relevant sections of the Code follow.

The Code of Ethics sets standards of conduct for Field Staff and is designed as a resource and guide to assist the Field Staff in understanding what the ethical expectations of them are when providing services to Clients.

The Lloyd Annual Mandates Topics should be used as a resource to clarify whether certain actions, behaviors by individuals appear inappropriate. Any Field Staff who has questions about ethical issues should contact the Quality Assurance Division at Lloyd Healthcare Staffing 1-888-292-6678 . The Director of Human Resources at Lloyd Staffing is used as a resource pertaining to State, Federal Law, Healthcare Facilities Internal Policies and Procedures, (631) 777-7600.
